

ASP Partnership Covenant

Group Name:		Group Number:
-------------	--	---------------

As the Staff of Appalachia Service Project, we agree:

- -To do everything we can to facilitate a meaningful service opportunity in a spiritual environment.
- -To manage the construction projects, provide tools and supplies, and communicate promptly and respectfully with group leaders and volunteers.
- -To provide quality evening programs and activities so volunteers have opportunities to learn about the region and explore their faith.
- -To embody ASP's Guiding Principles and be a role model for volunteers in representing ASP well within the community.

Karen Frederick Senior Director of Volunteers Appalachia Service Project

Karen Frederick

Nicole C. Intagliata Director of Programs Appalachia Service Project

As a Volunteer with Appalachia Service Project, I agree:

- -To familiarize myself with and abide by ASP's Expectations, Rules and Regulations, Anti-Harassment Policy, and dress code.
- -To work safely and report to the staff any behavior or situation that I deem unsafe.
- -To be open-minded and work to build meaningful relationships with the homeowners I serve, and interact appropriately with community members and other groups at my center.
- -To utilize resources in a stewardly fashion.
- -To maintain a clean facility by completing the chores assigned to my group.

As an Adult Group Leader, I further agree:

- -To be responsible for the whereabouts and well-being of my youth volunteers and to help enforce the expectations and rules set by ASP and the Staff, including quiet time and lights out.
- -To ensure that all volunteers are present for Morning Devotions, Evening Gatherings, and all other scheduled events.
- -To work with the Staff to complete the project specifically designated to my group.
- -To communicate promptly and respectfully any concerns or praises I have about our volunteer experience.

All participants please sign below. Give this form to ASP Staff upon arrival at your center.
